Introduction

Bed checks, as the name suggests, is when we check each student is present in their room at the end of the evening. These are an essential part of the safety and security procedures within the College and must be observed strictly and recorded, in accordance with the following guidelines.

Checking of the Students

- All students must be in the room shown on the Bed Check.
- Students aged under eighteen must be washed, changed and ready for bed
- The student must be physically seen by a member of staff and not simply assumed they are in their room, as for example, staying under a blanket or answering from behind a door.
- Students aged under eighteen must be told not to leave their room until morning (unless they wish to use the nearest communal bathroom) and the light must be turned off
- Students aged over eighteen may leave their light on, but must not cause disturbance to anyone inside or outside the boarding houses.

Checking of the Rooms

- Ensure that all basic facilities within the room are fully operational, such as windows, lights, door locks and taps.
- Ensure that the rooms are tidy and that in particular no items are left on the floor. The cleaners are unable to do their job unless this has been done. This also may be a hazard in case student need to evacuate the bedroom during the night in case of fire.

Checking the House

- Ensure all taps, showers, all lights in all communal areas are turned off. Ensure all windows and doors are shut. In particular windows on the ground floor to be securely locked. Ensure all fire extinguishers are in place and are in good condition (not used).
- Any damage, including light bulbs that need replacing, should be recorded on sheet attached to the Bed Register for transfer to the maintenance book in Student Services.
- Complete the attached fire check sheet.

When Bed Checks have been completed the file must be left by the entrance door in an agreed place.

The Bed checks are updated daily when needed. Welfare will mark the bed check if any student is legitimately absent.

IMPORTANT: In the event of the fire alarm going off, a member of staff will use the Bed Check as a register of who is in the house.
