

Citizenship & Personal Tutors Policy

Related Documents Include:

- Curriculum Policy
- Introduction to Academic Courses

Legal Status:

- Legislation: only applies to Maintained Schools (applied to PRUs (Pupil Referral Units – for pupils who cannot attend a traditional school) in relation to secondary school pupils only) - The Education Act 1996: Section 404

Monitoring and Review

- This policy will be subject to continuous monitoring, refinement and audit by the Principal.
 - The Principal will undertake a formal annual review of this policy for the purpose of monitoring and of the efficiency with which the related duties have been discharged, by no later than one year from the date shown below, or earlier if significant changes to the systems and arrangements take place, or if legislation, regulatory requirements or best practice guidelines so require.
- The next official date for review is November 2026

Introduction

At the start of the year staff are either asked to be a Personal Tutor or a Citizenship Teacher. Each student is allocated both a Personal Tutor, who they meet throughout the term, and a Citizenship Teacher, who they meet each week. This is all co-ordinated by the Principal.

Personal Tutors

The role of the Personal Tutor is to be a first point of contact for both concerned students and staff regarding academic matters.

Personal Tutors are asked to play an active role in the academic progress of their students. This includes discussing their progress with their teachers, as well as being aware of any behavioural problems.

It is expected that Tutors will meet each tutee at least twice each half term. Each term, the last of these tutorials should comprise report feedback (see Appendix 2) and should take place as soon as possible once end of term reports have been disseminated. Each tutorial should last between ten and fifteen minutes.

Student Interviews

Student interviews provide Abbey College students with a valuable opportunity for individual support. Regular sessions with their Personal Tutor give them a greater feeling of security and a genuine feeling that there is someone they can discuss issues with.

It is also an opportunity for Tutors to discuss any academic behavioural issues or underachievement which may have arisen, student successes, future University/A-level/Foundation or IGCSE choices and termly reports.

Each student should have a discussion with their personal tutor regarding their termly report as soon as possible after the report's release.

Structure of Interviews

The interview should always start by looking at a piece of work/file/exercise book/student planner/assessment the student has brought to show the Tutor, who should comment on presentation, effort made and any feedback on the piece the student has received. If appropriate, praise or merits should be given and/or targets set for the next piece of work.

The Tutor should then move on to discuss any issues they wish to raise with the student as suggested above. Tutors should focus on finding solutions to problems and setting targets to be completed by the next interview, whether that be trying harder in a particular subject or completing their UCAS form.

The final part of the interview should be given over to the student so he/she can raise any issues they have. Tutors should help their students to be solution focused and work through their problems wherever possible. A follow up email from the Tutor detailing whatever information they have on the matter to the relevant member of staff and highlighting the issue is always good practice.

During the course of an interview if any student discloses information on a subject which the Tutor believes to be harmful to their physical, mental or emotional wellbeing, this should be discussed with a member of the Academic Management team or the Principal (depending on the issue) at the soonest available opportunity.

Personal Tutors must fill in a Personal Tutorial Report (Appendix 1) for every interview.

Personal Tutor Files

Personal Tutor files should include the following:

- List of Tutees.
- Policy - Citizenship and Personal Tutors.
- Form - Personal Tutorial Record.
- Form - Pupil Improvement Plans.
- Form - Personal Development Plan.
- Form - Report Feedback.
- A separate section for each tutee, arranged alphabetically by surname.

--------------	----	-------	------------	-------------	-----	-------	------------	--------------	----	-------	------------

These sections should include:

- Student Timetables (available on SharePoint).
- Completed Personal Tutorial Records (Appendix 1).
- Termly reports as they are published with a Report Feedback Form (Appendix 2) for each report.
- A printout of any correspondence between the student and UCAS or any universities (if relevant). This is to be provided by the student.

Personal Tutor files should be handed to the Principal or Director of Studies at the end of every term and be available for inspection at any time.
